TENNESSEE NEWS

CUT TO THE QUICK FOR BUSY READERS

Corn was retaining on the Knoxville market last week for $1.15 a bushel, higher than it has been within fifteen years.

Contrary to expectation, there have been no applications for charters for social clubs in Nashville following the decision of the supreme court in the locker law case.

Byrum Yearwood, an aged citizen of near Murfreesboro, died on a train between Huntland and Murfreesboro, from a stroke of apoplexy brought on by his running to catch the train.

Two negroes arrested in connection with the murder of Bud Burns at Gadsdenburg were taken from the Hohenwald Jail by a mob and shot to death against trees on a nearby hill.

Messengers employed by the Western Union at Memphis, who went on strike in an effort to force the company to reinstate five youths who had been dismissed, have abandoned their strike and returned to work.

A Spanish "real" was unearthed by workmen at Jackson mound, near Memphis. It was found at a depth of fourteen feet. Further digging failed to reveal more of the silver coin. It was coined in 1895.

J. Frank Hanly and Ira Landrith, nominees of the prohibition party for President and Vice President of the United States, will speak in Nashville Saturday night, October 14. Elaborate plans for their reception will be laid. Dr. Landrith is a citizen of Nashville.

The Tennessee coal operators are practically unanimous in the opinion that unless some relief can be obtained from the prevailing coal shortage, the entire country will be facing the most serious coal famine in its history before January 1.

Eleven members of Troop D, the Knoxville cavalry company, have been disqualified and sent home, reducing the strength of the original from sixty-five to fifty-four. Adjutant Gen. Rogan has telegraphed to Knoxville in an effort to have the deficiency supplied.

"Caesar," a large African lion belonging to a circus showing in Rockford, turned upon his trainer, John Hoffman, striking at him and badly lacerating his hand and arm and bringing the show to a sudden end. The tent was emptied of a large audience in a short time.

Determined efforts are being made to have Charles E. Hughes, republican presidential nominee, speak in Knoxville before the termination of his campaign, and party leaders there are hopeful that a favorable response will be elicited from national headquarters in New York within a short time.

Brooding over his wife's desertion and her refusal to live with him again, Henry Grooms, 35 years old, went to the home of Glimmer Burns, in South Knoxville, and shot and instantly killed Burns, then fired with probably fatal effect on Mrs. Pearl Grooms, his wife, and Mrs. Burns, whose husband he had first slain.

Ten men were injured, two of them seriously, when an engine of the Roane Iron company became unmanageable and ran away down a steep incline three miles south of Rockwood. The engine struck and killed a cow, putting some part of the engine out of order.

Harry H. Shelton, for many years prominent in the practice of the law at Bristol, will go to Winston-Salem, N. C., to become counsel for the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco company. His new appointment is declared to be a distinct promotion, especially in consideration of the unusually handsome salary that attaches to it.

A real romance of the schoolroom became known when it was announced that Miss Sadie Marguerite Patrick, 23 years of age, had been married to James L. Yarbrough, aged 16, on Sept. 5. Yarbrough had been a pupil in Miss Patrick's room at Ardington, near Memphis, and there the romance ripened. She taught the fifth grade.

Members of the rifle team of Knoxville, which is the largest in the state, have a chance to attend the forthcoming contest and encampment at Jacksonville, beginning October 13, under the auspices of the National Rifle Association. The expenses of all rifle teams will be paid by the national government.

The Jacksonville franchise of the South Atlantic League has been taken over by Randolph Rose, a business man of Chattanooga, who is an ardent baseball fan and devotee of boxing. Manager Rose is president of the Randolph Rose Athletic Club of Chattanooga, one of the leading boxing organizations in the south.

More than one hundred Georgia farmers in automobiles will visit Cleveland October 6. They will go from there to Sweetwater. These farmers are looking into the stock raising industry of several East Tennessee counties, the boll weevil having become disastrous to their cotton crop, they now contemplate live stock raising instead.

IMPORTANT!

Attention is directed to the following extract from the Report of the Fourth International Congress of School Hygiene, which was held in Buffalo, N. Y., in 1913:

"With the development of more advanced ideas of epidemiology it has come to be understood that it is both from a sanitary and an economic standpoint, unwise to suspend the sessions of an entire school for the purpose of eliminating a few pupils who are the real distributors of infection. It has been found more rational and practical to detect the sources of infection and exclude them from contact with others and this process of elimination by exclusion is in the writer's opinion the key to the efficient control of infectious disease in any community."

WAYSIDE NOTES

No one has brought us a load of wood yet.

The Wayside is being kept open until 9 o'clock nights. When the evenings are cool, the fire makes it a cheerful stopping place.

Fresh home made candy is kept on sale at all times at the Rest Room.

Route 2 is the banner route again this week.

Please leave the plates you took pie home on at the Rest Room.

We wish to thank the ladies who gave us pies for the pie supper. We made $6.70, even though there were only eight to bid on the pies. One bidder got nine pies for $1.25.

The chairman of the T. P. I. division of the Parent Teachers' has appointed a committee to arrange for a book shower for the T. P. I. library to be given soon. Any books suitable for such a library that you may care to donate will be greatly appreciated.

Mrs. O. K. Holladay, assisted by her sister, Mrs. McCluen, entertained the Circle Wednesday very delightfully. Many guests outside of the Circle added to the enjoyment and entertainment. A most delicious salad course was served by the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Haile and Shanks.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
At the eleven o'clock service Sunday, October 8, the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed, and new members received.

The pastor, Rev. A. J. Colie, will preach at 7 o'clock, evening, on "The man whom God helped to conquer himself."

The Sunday school, under the superintendency of R. H. Harding, is a graded school and has classes adapted to all ages. A cordial welcome will be extended to strangers.

BUYS AYERSHIRE
Gen. John T. Wilder of Monterey has bought several Ayshire cattle from an Ohio breeder and will place them on his farm near Monterey. The Ayshires are famous for the quantity and quality of milk and should be a valuable breed for this section of the country.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING
The Woman's Clubs of the Fourth Congressional district will meet in Galatin Saturday. Mrs. Rutledge Smith of Cookeville will preside, and papers will be read by Mrs. Walter Carlen, Mrs. C. E. Wilson, Mrs. J. C. McDearman of Cookeville; and Mrs. Clara Cox Epperson and Mrs. C. A. Douglass of Algood.

HERALD 50c A YEAR
Hereafter the Herald will be 50c a year. This raise in price is made necessary by the increased cost of paper and other material. Paper now costs about three times as much as it did a year ago and is still going up. Therefore we are compelled to charge more for the Herald. It will continue to be the best newspaper in the county and the lowest in price.

NASHVILLE
Dear Editor and Herald Readers—I have been reading the good letters from so many of my old friends I just thought I would write a few words.

There is a lot of sickness in our city at present. Mrs. E. L. Nunnally is improving nicely after undergoing an operation. She is at St. Thomas' Hospital.

I wonder what has become of Fred Brewer, that he don't write any more. Come again, Haywood Johnson, with another good letter.

Wonder if L. Lacy has lost her pen oil is the reason she don't write. Our Sunday school is getting along nicely. We had an attendance of 113 last Sunday, with 70 Bibles present.

Come on, readers, and write to the Herald. Always tell us how your Sunday school is getting along. I was very sorry to hear of the accident which happened at Mr. Tom Harley's. They all have my sympathy.

Come, friends, let us hear from you all.
L. O. BURROUGHS.

THAT MORNING LAMENESS

If you are lame every morning, and suffer urinary ills, there must be a cause. Often it's weak kidneys. To strengthen the weakened kidneys and avert more serious troubles, use Doan's Kidney Pills. You can rely on this testimony.

Mrs. Martha Hearn, 314 N. Maple St., Lebanon, Tenn., says: "My back ached constantly and I had soreness across my kidneys. I tried easily, especially mornings. Frequently, I had headaches and I could hardly stand from dizziness. The secretions from my kidneys passed too freely. Doan's Kidney Pills strengthened my back and put my kidneys in good shape." Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for kidney remedy, get Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Hearn had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

GARRETT SPEAKS

Hon. F. J. Garrett, congressman from the ninth district, made a campaign speech in Cookeville Monday afternoon. He had a fair sized audience delivered a strong appeal to Democrats. Mr. Garrett is one of the most polished speakers in the state.

GUILTY—NEW TRIAL

Herbert Whittaker was found guilty of manslaughter on the charge of killing Policeman A. H. Countiss of Monterey, and given a sentence of three to ten years. Judge Gardenhire, however, granted an appeal for a new trial, and the case will be tried again in January.

C. P. SYNOD

The Tennessee Synod of the Cumberland Presbyterian church will convene in Cookeville next Tuesday and continue in session for several days. About 300 delegates and visitors are expected, and arrangements for their entertainment are practically complete.

EXPRESSION OF THANKS

The committee elected by the Baptist church to look after the entertainment of the New Salem Association of Baptists on September 26, 27 and 28, in their own behalf and in behalf of the Baptist church desire to express their hearty and sincere thanks to all who in any way assisted in and contributed to the entertainment and success of the Association. We pledge ourselves to return the kindness whenever the occasion permits.

ENTERTAINMENT COM.

LON SCOTT ORATES

Hon. Lon A. Scott, past, present and future member of the legislature from Hardin county, made a campaign speech in Cookeville Tuesday to a small crowd, largely Democrats. Mr. Scott made a telling effort for the Republican ticket. He is a strong and pleasing speaker. He will spend the rest of the week in Putnam county and should have large audiences at each appointment.

EDUCATIONAL RALLY

A teachers' meeting and Educational Rally will be held at Post Oak in the 15th district, three miles north of Cookeville, on Saturday, Oct. 23. This will probably be the last rally held in the country this year, and every teacher is expected to attend. Program will be published next week. Respectfully, J. M. HATFIELD, Co. Supt.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY

A well attended meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society was held Monday afternoon. After the business session, a very delightful social hour was spent, after which delicious refreshments were served. The next meeting of the Aid will be with Mrs. Chas. Reagan, Oct. 9, at 3 o'clock.

BRYAN IN NASHVILLE

Williams Jennings Bryan, the great commoner, will speak in Nashville on the night of Oct. 18, at Ryman Auditorium. This will be his only speech in Tennessee during the present campaign and will attract thousands who delight in hearing the great orator.

METHODIST CHURCH

"Abraham, the Friend of God" is the subject of the morning sermon for Sunday, Oct. 8, by the pastor, Rev. R. J. Craig. The evening service will begin at 7 o'clock, and will be evangelistic. As this is the last Sunday of the conference year, everybody is cordially invited to attend the service, as the "strangers in our midst" are welcome. Epworth League meets at 6:15.

A JEWELRY STORE FOR COOKEVILLE

R. H. Powers of Dickson, has decided to locate in Cookeville and establish a jewelry store. He will carry a complete line of jewelry, silver ware and optical goods. He is an expert jeweler and optician, and will fit glasses and do all kinds of repairing in his line. Located for the present on Cedar Street, one door north of the Citizens Bank.

NOTICE TO TEACHERS

The committee have decided that in the spelling contests for First Day a committee of Primary teachers to select words suitable for first and second grades. BRANDWIE CHORUS CLUB

A long felt need in Cookeville in the development of singing was relieved by the organization of the Brandwie Chorus Club Wednesday evening. The purpose of this club is to teach the rudiments of music, sing, singing with the movable Do system, which is the modern system of teaching. The club is extending by training, and having secured the services of Miss Brandwie, who is director of music at T. P. I., and a graduate of the Conservatory of Music, of Cincinnati, as musical director.
The following officers were elected: R. H. Harding, Pres.; Mrs. C. E. Wilson, 1st Vice President; Mrs. C. E. Wilson, 2nd Vice President; J. B. Thompson, Secretary; Miss Gladys LaRochelle, Assistant Secretary; Austin Smith, Treasurer; E. B. Duke, Business Manager.
An entrance fee of 15 cents will be charged, after which there will be no dues nor tuition. The meetings will be held in the auditorium of the First Presbyterian church each Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Every person who is interested in the development of singing is urged to join this club.
Attend next Friday evening and be come a member.

BUSINESS FOR SALE AT COST

Brown's Music Store For Sale Now

Have been in the music business over twenty years and my sales run thirty five thousand dollars a year, but on account of bad health I have decided to quit business. Prices are greatly reduced now. If you are not ready to buy, get ready and come where goods are cheap. I will still sell on the installment plan and you can pay monthly without security. I have most all kinds of musical instruments, sewing machines, and supplies of all kinds. If you are going to buy in two or three years you had better buy now, while the goods are cheap. I am going to sell out.
Thanking my thousands of customers for the liberal patronage they have given me, I will be at the same place—Public Square, Cookeville, until I close out my stock. Your best friend for music. Again thanking you for past favors, I am,
Respectfully yours,
FELIX A. BROWN
I buy all my goods from Chicago, New York and Virginia factories.
J. H. Watts went to Nashville yesterday to attend the banquet given to Al G. Fields, the minstrel, by the Elks
